U.S.A. vs. Demario Antwain Hopkins

Docket No. 5:98-CR-37-6F

Petition for Action on Supervised Release

COMES NOW Eddie J. Smith, probation officer of the court, presenting a petition for modification of the Judgment and Commitment Order of Demario Antwain Hopkins, who, upon an earlier plea of guilty to 21 U.S.C. § 846, Conspiracy to Distribute and Possess With the Intent to Distribute Cocaine Base (Crack) and Other Controlled Substances and 18 U.S.C. § 924(c)(1), Use or Carry a Firearm During and In Relation to a Drug-Trafficking Crime, was sentenced by the Honorable James C. Fox, Senior U.S. District Judge, on November 9, 1998, to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons for a term of 227 months. It was further ordered that upon release from imprisonment the defendant be placed on supervised release for 60 months under the standard conditions adopted by the court and the following additional conditions:

1. The defendant shall consent to a warrantless search by a United States Probation Officer or, at the request of the probation officer, any other law enforcement officer, of the defendant's person and premises, including any vehicle, to determine compliance with the conditions of this judgment.
2. The defendant shall participate in such vocational training program as may be directed by the probation office.
3. The defendant shall submit a written weekly report to the probation office, if not regularly employed, of attempts to secure gainful employment.
4. The defendant shall participate as directed in a program approved by the probation office for the treatment of narcotic addiction, drug dependency, or alcohol dependency which will include urinalysis testing or other drug detection measures and may require residence or participation in a residential treatment facility.

On January 24, 2000, pursuant to a Rule 35(b), the imprisonment sentence was reduced by the court to 170 months. Demario Antwain Hopkins was released from custody on July 2, 2010, at which time the term of supervised release commenced. As a result of new criminal conduct, this term of supervised release was revoked on November 10, 2011, and the defendant was sentenced to time served. Additionally, he was ordered to serve a 48-month term of supervised release under the previously imposed conditions.
